

CLE Temporary Art Exhibition Program is calling on Northeast Ohio young and aspiring artists for its upcoming poster contest for the Cleveland National Air Show. So grab your favorite art supplies and create a poster that captures the excitement of the Cleveland National Air Show.

The Air Show is Cleveland's Labor Day Weekend Tradition. Three days of aerial thrills featuring military jet demonstrations by the U.S. Navy Blue Angels or U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds, gyroscopic aerobatics, parachuting, WWII aircraft, wingwalking and pyrotechnics. Plus excitement on the ground. Fans can tour unique aircraft, help pack a parachute or meet a pilot.

All public and private school students, youth groups and individual youth artists in the age groups shown below are invited to submit two-dimensional (2D) works of art for consideration.

The CLE Temporary Art Exhibition Program creates an airport ambiance unique to the Cleveland Plus Region and welcomes people to the Airport and region. The mission of the Youth Art Program is to provide Cleveland Plus Region's youth with the opportunity to showcase their artwork in an exhibit that gets over 30,000 visitors daily. CLE Youth Art Gallery is located on the ticketing level near Security Checkpoint A. The Youth Art Gallery changes up to two times per year providing exhibit opportunities for Northeast Ohio's youth. Submissions are reviewed by an Art Review Panel. Each approved proposal is assigned an exhibit start date based on the exhibition calendar. In addition, winning artists are also featured on the airport's website.

Youth Gallery Public Exhibition Dates

The exhibit will be open to the public April 1– October 31, 2015. The gallery is open daily and is free to the public.

Every attempt will be made to preserve, secure and protect each entry submitted; but the City of Cleveland cannot be responsible for damages, loss of art entries, or the cancellation of this exhibit due to unforeseen circumstances. The placing of art in the exhibition constitutes an agreement on the part of the entrant with conditions herein set forth. The City of Cleveland reserves the right to publish for publicity purposes reproductions of the entries.

Rules & Regulations

- Only artists submitting their original work will be eligible to participate. Not accepted: kits, paint-by-numbers pieces; photocopies, or photographs of artwork; magazine or book illustrations, random snapshots.
- The artist submittal will be reviewed by an Art Review Panel. Additional information may be requested from the Artist either verbally or in writing. Failure to comply with such request will automatically disqualify the Artist from further consideration.
- The Art Review Panel reserves the right to disqualify entries they consider to be unacceptable or inappropriate for a public exhibit.
- Artists whose proposals have not been selected for consideration will be notified in writing at the address given in the proposal.
- The work selected will be returned to the artist after exhibition timeframe has expired.
- The City of Cleveland will not be liable for any costs incurred by the artist associated with the preparation of a proposal submitted in response to this Call to Artists.
- Nothing contained in this Call to Artists shall create any contractual relationship between the City of Cleveland and the artist.

Retrieving Entries

Each artist is responsible for retrieving his/her artwork within two weeks of notification. Neither the City of Cleveland nor Cleveland Hopkins International Airport will be responsible for unclaimed works. Unclaimed artwork will be held for a period of 30 days then discarded.
