

Federal Aviation Administration

Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Holds Public Workshops in Cleveland area for the Cleveland/Detroit Metroplex Project

The FAA will hold three public workshops to announce the completion of the Environmental Assessment for the Cleveland Detroit Metroplex Project. The Project involves changes to aircraft flight routes and altitudes in certain areas.

Workshops are OPEN TO ALL and held on the following dates:

Tuesday, December 5, 2017, 5:00 PM -8:00 PM

Don Umerley Civic Center (Memorial Hall)
21016 Hilliard Blvd.
Rocky River, OH 44116

Wednesday, December 6, 2017, 5:00 PM -8:00 PM

Gunning Recreation Center (Gymnasium)
16700 Puritas Avenue
Cleveland, OH, 44135

Thursday, December 7, 2017, 5:00 PM -8:00 PM

Baldwin Wallace University Student Union/Strosacker Hall
(Sandstone 3 Conference Room)
120 East Grand Street
Berea, OH, 44017

Can't make a Workshop, the comment period is opened until December 11, 2017

Email comments to: 9-ASW-CLE-DTWOAPM-Comment@faa.gov

CITY OF CLEVELAND
Mayor Frank G. Jackson

Come talk to the FAA and its team one-on-one in this informal open-house forum. Learn about the proposed changes to aircraft flight routes and altitudes at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport. Electronic copies of the Draft EA and supporting materials are available at:

http://www.metroplexenvironmental.com/cle_dtwtw_metroplex/cle_dtwtwintroduction.html